LOUISVILLE, KY., Oct. 2, 1868. OPENING SERVICE. The conference was opened with religious service, conducted by Rev. Joel Peak, Bishop McTyeire presiding. The minutes of yesterday were read and approved.

CHANGE OF THE PLACE OF MEETING The room heretofure occupied by the onference becoming too much crowded by reason of the large attendance, it was und necessary to occupy VISITING MINISTERS INTRODUCED. VISITING MINISTERS INTRODUCED.

The following clerical visitors were introduced: Revs. E. P. Humphrev, Sadd, Stnart Robinson, L. Yandell and Thompson, of the Presbyterian Church; Anderson, of the Episcopal Church; T. O. Summers and J. B. McFerrin, of Nashville; R. H. Rivers, of Russelville Female College; J. Strother, J. Rand and H. A. M. Henderson, of the Kentucky Conference; Jetlerson, of the Virginia Conference.

REMARKS BY DR. ROBINSON.

Rev. Stnart Robinson, D. D., made a few remarks to the Conference. He was a Presbyterian, and a High Church Presbyterian too, but he rejoiced at the prosperity of the Louisville Conference. He was glad to learn from the report of Bishop Fierce that the Methodist Episcopal Church South was enlarging her borders and establishing churches and a Conference beyond the Uhio, and regretted that his church in the South was not following in the same direction. The geography of his church located the world south of the Potomac and the Ohio; he wanted it so changed that like Southern Methodist geography it should include the North and the East; and closed by advising the Uonference to preach the gospel, eschewing politics and the devil. AN OLD DIVINE'S SUGGESTION.

An Irishman, noticing a woman passing along the street, spied two strips depending from under the lady's clock. Not knowing that these were styled sashes, and were hanging in the right place, he exclaimed: "Faith, ma'am, your gallasses are untied."

A. A. Morrisop read a report from the visiting commutate to Louisville Female College, commendatory of that Institu-tion. Referred to proper committee, LOUIVED.

GENERAL COMPLAINT. Spectators largely complain that the speakers on the Conference floor do not speak loud enough to be heard. Several efforts have been made to induce louder utterance on the part of the speakers, but without success.

AN OLD DIVINE SECRESTION.

It has been anggested by a venerable divine that the disciplinary salvice to Methodist preachers, "not to speak too long, nor too loud," should be changed to read: "Do not speak too long, but loud enough to be heard."

The procession formed on Broad street, and commenced moving at eleven of a clock. The line was headed by Gen. Owen with his staff; the war Governors in a barouche followed, including Governors Burnside and Curtin. The Boys in Bine of nearly every ward were largely represented.

Auong the delegations were 300 prise ners, each carrying small flags which they brought home from the rebel prison in which they had suffered. A wagen followed with the survivors from the rebel prison, carrying those who were unable to walk. The tenth ward carried a tatered flag of the 82d regiment. The fifteenth ward regiment was headed by a veteran, carrying an old knapsæck that had done service with the army and a blanket on top, with the amy and a blanket on top, with the motto, "our carpet city." The city delegations composed the first division, and made an imposing appearance—the clubs marching in solid column ten abreast.

Next came the second division, with Gov. Geary at its head in a carriage. This was composed of delegations from the interior of Pennsylvania, which were very numerous. The North Hamptou boys carried a live coon on a pole; the
